Gibs n' Squibs

This month's Brigador Killers development post takes a look at the gib effects that get generated when you start shooting at things in the game. No infantry were harmed in the making of this month's post... much.

Olive Drab Everything... Results!

The Olive Drab Everything miniature painting contest on our discord server has wrapped. Dozens of photos were pored over by the community jury. They have concluded that the runners up were:

- MikeMurdoc
- Briggs
- DoktorSaftig

Who will receive a patch of their choice from our store. Meanwhile the winners were:

- Bennet Speergreifer
- RWAY
- Dapper Platypus
- ImperatorSpookyosa
- GetKraken

These fine painters will receive something... a bit more interesting that is also coming to the Stellar Jockeys merch store soon*. You can see everyone's submissions to the competition via the linked album below

(*It would have happened sooner but the time spent redesigning the packaging for new and current store items pushed back the release)

Community Spotlight

Flyingdebris did a paintover of the infamously menacing JJBA panel with BK's Hundo mascot and Lil' Buddy...

...Zi imagined what it would be like for Prism-Kun to work in the service industry...

...and also riffed on the famous cover of Sonic Adventure...

...but no month's newsletter could be dispatched without a Juntti contribution, obviously.

Still haven't joined our discord server? You're missing out on all the other contributions that end up in the #becks_best channel each month.
