Controller Survey

If you missed last month's newsletter, there are just a few hours left to finish the short survey about what controller you use to play games on your computer. Participation is anonymous, but at the end you can submit your email address to be entered into a raffle to win something from our merchandise store. The results will be posted to our #survey-results channel of our Discord server soon after.

Community Spotlight

The SJ community's channel of finest works has seen a few submissions this past month. Beck's best regular bloodylilzi shows us who's boss of this district...

...Nooble showed off the canon Fatshoe running animation...

...Ikvanilla tempted us with new merch ideas...

...and Juntii did this.

You can see a few more from the past month in the #becks_best fanworks channel on the Discord server.

Next Month

Given how many systems are now coming online for Brigador Killers, it's hard to predict what November will bring, but we might be able to show off some new changes to the audio.
